Curriculum Details

Curriculum type : Local

Curriculum planning

Starting from early child school admission, we aim at developing children's abilities in all aspects: Learning ability, Self-care ability, Social skill. Preschool Class: Building children's foundation. Low-Class: An important stage for abilities training. High-Class: Abilities strengthening.

We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.

Learning / Teaching approach & activities

Through different strategic projects to integrate into children's school life: Learning Ability: Group discussion learning, Autonomic grouping, Project approach, Science exploration area, Reading award plan, Experience learning, "Good-children" listing. Self-care Ability: Eating refreshments, Going to toilet and washing hands, Tidy-up stuff, Wearing jacket, Brushing teeth, Folding homework & paper, Folding quilt. Social Skill: "Good-Friends" project, Visits & activities, Open competitions & performance, "Service Angel" award, Small group leader, Grasshopper scout.

Assessment of children's learning experiences

We develop a personal learning portfolio to record children's learning achievements through continuous observations.
