Curriculum planning

Curriculum is planned in accordance with the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide", and in cooperation with the concept of "child-oriented", it aims at nurturing children with the principles of comprehensive and balanced development. It covers five developmental objectives namely, "Moral Development", "Cognitive and Language Development", "Physical Development", "Affective and Social Development" and "Aesthetic Development", the scope of learning is closely related to real-life learning themes, it allows young children to learn from games, to foster their learning interest, build positive values and attitudes, enhance self-confidence and self-care abilities.

We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.

Learning / Teaching approach & activities

Through real-life learning themes, and in cooperation with diversified activities, our small group teaching is combined with rich and interesting learning subjects, the outdoor exploration, visits and Information Technology Application that can stimulate children's independent learning ability and promote self-motivated learning. Conducting "Project Approach" allows children to carry out project learning based on their learning interest, and promotes the ability of inquiry, discussion and negotiation. Through a variety of mixed-age games the children learn the important skills of sharing and collaborating well with others.

Assessment of children's learning experiences

We perform continuous observation, recording and analysis of children's physical and mental developments and learning results and use students' growth portfolios to systematically record their growth process in order to understand their needs and provide appropriate assistance and guidance.
