Curriculum Details

Curriculum type : Local

Curriculum planning

With the core value of the curriculum as "child-centeredness", thematic stories, project work, and whole language pedagogy are strategies for improving the children's potentials for self-initiated learning, to achieve balanced development in moral intelligence, physical health, social interaction, and aesthetics. Chinese and English storybooks are used to integrate all of the children's learning and development areas, and to develop children's listening, speaking, reading and writing skills through systematic and diverse activities. This school integrates emotional education into daily activities and life situations, guiding children to identify and take in different emotions and correctly express their own emotions.

We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.

Learning / Teaching approach & activities

Our curriculum is child-centered. Pedagogical approaches developmentally appropriate that children learn through play, and develop their learning interest and thinking capacity. A variety of systematic play areas used to enable activity-based, whole-language and project-based teaching. School-based curriculum is implemented based on children's diverse developmental needs and abilities. Self-care training and corners are designed to enhance children's autonomy and independence of learning. Through respective themes, project approach, whole-language approaches, book-based approach of pedagogy are adopted to foster children's language capacities and raise their potentials of self-imitative in learning, in order to attain balanced and comprehensive development in children's moral, intellectual, physical, social and aesthetic domains.

Assessment of children's learning experiences

Evaluation of children's development and learning through continuous observations of activity, assessment, records and portfolio analysis, which cover Physical Fitness and Health, Language, Early Childhood Mathematics, Nature and Living, Self and Society as well as Arts and Creativity.

School Characteristics

School vision and mission

To communicate a caring culture and positive messages to families and the community. To support families in solving problems of child education and care so that parents can go to work without worry.
