Our school respects the specialties and needs of children's development, so that we set subject groups of specific responsibilities to compile appropriate diversified curriculum and to design enlightening activities for the children; our school takes thematic teaching as the center, supplemented by pursuing bi-literate and tri-lingual teaching in the form of teaching every subject independently and professionally, in order to prepare well for children's future enrollment in local and international schools, transit to primary education smoothly, and lay down a foundation for their lifelong education in the future.
